

Parks and Recreation Department

Aqua Zumba

This class combines the practice of Zumba with the resistance of the water while performing the movements which gives you a great workout.

You will be able to feel the muscles contracting against the water throughout the class. It will be a great class for all age groups and skill levels.