

Parks and Recreation Department

---

Hot Stone Massage

Smooth water-heated stones are used to relax muscles so therapist can reach deeper layers of muscles, reducing pain while promoting relaxation and stress relief. The warm stones help expand your blood vessels resulting in better circulation and a sedative effect that can help diminish stress as well as relieving chronic pain.